What can you find in Ohio? Let’s meet a few kid experts who know all about what makes the Buckeye State extra great! There are so many reasons to be proud of Ohio. Do you know about them all?
Say hey to Felix! He lives in Cincinnati, Ohio, where our 27th president was born. Felix thinks it is hilarious that President William Howard Taft kept a pet cow at the White House. Felix never stops talking about that Taft!
Maria lives in Lebanon, Ohio, home of the state’s oldest hotel. The Golden Lamb has been open since 1803! Maria’s family likes to get takeout from the hotel restaurant.

Help Maria find the takeout bag.
Domenic is bonkers about bird watching! Good thing he lives in Ohio’s birding hot spot, Huron. His family enjoys walking the pier, where Domenic spots warblers, purple sandpipers and even snowy owls!
Ruby has a lot to tell you about her Ohio hero, John Glenn. He was the first American astronaut to orbit the Earth! And he travelled into space again when he was 77 years old. Ruby and John Glenn share something cool in common. He is from New Concord, Ohio, just like her!

Connect the numbers and see Ruby’s favorite constellation!
Cho lives in Columbus, Ohio. She's an outdoor expert because of all the weekends she spends with her family in Hocking Hills State Park. They hike the forest trails, explore huge caves and wander near the waterfalls.
Liam loves books, so he’s proud to live in Lorain, Ohio, the hometown of famous writer, Toni Morrison. Liam longs to be an author like Toni. She was the first African American woman to win the Nobel Prize in literature. Liam loves celebrating “Toni Morrison Day” in his town on February 18th!
Wes is proud to be part of a family that lives off the land in Zanesville. Because he is a farming expert, Wes knows that Ohio is the number one producer of Swiss cheese in the whole country. Ohio is also a top producer of eggs, tomatoes and pumpkins. It's no wonder the food here tastes so fresh!
Jada likes to call herself a stargazing space case. Good thing she lives in Wapakoneta, Ohio. Her hometown is totally out of this world because it’s the birthplace of the first man to walk on the moon, Neil Armstrong!
